HOLISTIC SKINCARE

from within

The benefits of bathing are well known for both body and mind. In much the same way a warm bath calms the body and recentres the mind, PROCEANIS® Hyaluron Drink supports wellness from within, making it the perfect complement to your client's restorative rituals and lifestyle.

Clinically-proven Cellular Hydration from Within

Crafted in Germany in collaboration with molecular biologists, PROCEANIS® Hyaluron Drink is the world's first vegan hyaluronic acid nutricosmetic.

The Hyaluron Drink's unique and globally patented molecular structure ensures maximum absorption to deliver deep cellular hydration, well beyond the reach of topical skincare.

Clinical studies conducted at independent dermatology institute, Dermatest® confirmed a 69% increase in skin moisture content over a 12-week period.

This fusion of science and self-care aligns perfectly with your clients' wellness journeys, enhancing the therapeutic benefits they receive long after they leave your space.

Elevate and Extend the Wellness Experience Beyond the Visit

Introducing PROCEANIS® into your retail offering becomes an extension of the wellness experience into your clients' everyday lives. This sophisticated aftercare solution helps strengthen the connection between your guests and your space, even after they leave. It provides an effortless way to stay top of mind whilst generating an additional revenue stream with minimal overhead. More importantly, it reinforces your commitment to a holistic approach to wellness.

Why Wellness Centres are Embracing PROCEANIS®

- Supports daily rituals – a simple, luxurious supplement that fits into your clients' wellness lifestyle with ease.
- Deep cellular hydration – the patented molecular structure of highly-dosed vegan hyaluronic acid, aligns to the body's own structure for maximum absorption.
- German-made with clean labelled, 100% naturally sourced, vegan ingredients including biotin, niacin and pomegranate for a naturally pleasing taste without sweeteners or binders.
- Aligns with holistic therapies – enriches treatments like floatation, infrared sauna, massage, cryotherapy therapy and detox programs by nourishing skin, hair, nails and joints from within.
- 24hr skin support – pair the Hyaluron Drink (Day) with the new Collagen Drink (Night) for round-the-clock renewal.
- Sustainable – products are packaged in recyclable glass, natural carton and 100% PET plastic, and 3 mangrove trees are planted for every product sold to further reduce the carbon footprint.

A Favourite amongst Leading European Spas and Wellness Centres

PROCEANIS® is stocked in some of Europe's most exclusive and premium wellness destinations, including:

- Lanserhof – the world's best longevity clinic and leading health resort.
- The Donna Portals Spa – a luxury beachfront retreat in Mallorca, Spain.
- David Lloyd Meridian Spas – Europe's largest wellness chain with 135 clubs.

An Award-Winning Formulation

Since its launch in 2012, PROCEANIS® has earned numerous accolades:

- Recognised regularly by Vogue, GQ and top media as Best German Beauty Product
- Winner of the Germany Beauty & Anti-Ageing Award (2016/17)
- COSMOPROF 2024 Beauty Award second place in one of Europe's most prestigious honours

PROCEANIS® Hyaluron Drink is a unique supplement that effortlessly enhances and extends the therapeutic benefits of your wellness space into your clients' lives day after day.
